

Level 3 Certificate in Mortgage Advice and Practice (CeMAP®)

The leading qualification in the financial services industry.

If you aim to give professional advice on mortgages, you must hold an appropriate qualification that is recognised by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA).

CeMAP® has long been considered the qualification of choice in the financial services industry, meeting the regulatory requirements for a career in this sector.

The qualification is studied in three modules that build a thorough understanding and knowledge of UK financial regulation mortgages policy. Many choose to study the CeMAP® course because it also helps to develop essential practical skills in how to apply your knowledge in the real world when advising customers.

CeMAP® in summary

- The Level 3 Certificate in Mortgage Advice and Practice (CeMAP®) is a qualifications and Credit Framework (QCF) qualification accredited by Ofqual
- CeMAP® is studied in seven mandatory units and assessed in three modules
- CeMAP® is assessed by one 2-hour examination per module
- You must only re-sit the units that you don't pass. This means that you may concentrate on weak areas without having to re-sit exams for the entire syllabus.
